

KENYATTA UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS 2010/2011

INSTITUTIONAL BASED PROGRAMME (IBP) AUGUST 2010 SESSION

EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF EDUCATION

EFN/M 533: PARTICIPATORY HEALTH EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION IN HEALTH EDUCATION

DATE: WEDNESDAY 29TH DECEMBER 2010

TIME: 2.00 P.M. - 5.00 P.M.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Answer THREE questions only.

1. With relevant examples, show how action research could be used to promote health education in the Kenyan schools.
2. Justify the involvement of communities and other stakeholders on matters of health and health education.
3.
 - (a) What is action research?
 - (b) What are the advantages of action research in comparison to other methods?
 - (c) With relevant examples, show how action research could be used to enhance health in Kenya.
4. Discuss the proposition that “the government and other partners need to involve communities in planning and executing health issues”. Use relevant examples to illustrate your answer.
5. Using appropriate examples, discuss the relationship between:
 - (a) Education and health.
 - (b) Community mobilization and health.

=====