

KENYATTA UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS 2017/2018

FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (MILITARY STUDIES)

SMS 402: MILITARY FONDATION STUDIES II

DATE: Tuesday 13th January 2018

TIME: 2.00 p.m. – 4.00 p.m.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Answer Question one and any other two questions

Question 1

- a) What is System Approach Training? [2 marks]
- b) Explain the four distinct levels at which training evaluation is usually assessed. [8 marks]
- c) With the aid of a diagram, describe the distinctive features of a Defense Systems Approach to Training model. [10 marks]
- d) Discuss any five considerations in the planning of a training programme. [10 marks]

Question 2

- a) State the three elements of a complete training objective. [2 marks]
- b) Explain any four purposes of training objective. [8 marks]
- c) Examine the three pillars of a commander's development plan at Unit level. [10 marks]

Question 3

- a) State any four benefits of a lesson plan to an instructor. [2 marks]
- b) Explain why a lesson introduction is critical to the success of a lesson. [8 marks]
- c) Examine any five triggers of training in the military. [10 marks]

Question 4

- a) With examples, describe the three domains under which training objectives may be define according to the Bloom's Taxonomy. [10 marks]
- b) Discuss the pillars of training in the military. [10 marks]

Question 5

- a) A weapons instructor at the Kenya Military Academy was conducting a DID practical lesson on Stripping and Cleaning a G3 assault rifle to a class of KMA 08 Cadet Intake. Outline two activities/actions that the instructor must undertake in each of the four stages of the development phase for a successful lesson. [12 marks]
- b) Examine any four principles of training applicable to military set up. [8 marks]